

» FAQs IGCSE

Some frequently asked questions:

Is the IGCSE Programme recognized by schools and universities worldwide?

IGCSE Programme

Yes.

Is the IGCSE Programme recognized by higher secondary boards and universities in India?

Yes, it is recognized by CBSE, CISCE and state education boards in India as a qualification for entry to class XI or for other higher secondary education courses. It is also a recognized class X qualification, as one of the prerequisites, for admission to undergraduate courses in India.

How are IGCSE students assessed?

A variety of assessment techniques are used, appropriate to the various subjects, such as oral and listening tests, practical and coursework which look at overall performance over this two-year period, and contribute 30-50% of the final grade, in addition to written examinations.

What are the benefits of IGCSE, when compared with other examinations that might be taken in classes IX and X?

Firstly, it is an international examination with world-wide recognition and credibility.

Secondly, it encourages indeed, *demand*s the questioning and discovery method of learning, rather than relying on rote learning.

Thirdly, the coursework and practicals provide a strong skill development and application orientation.

Which modern foreign languages will be available?

We currently offer only French as foreign language.

Can an IGCSE student at International School continue his / her studies at another IGCSE authorized school if the need arises?

Yes, as all IGCSE authorized schools across the world follow a common curriculum. IGCSE students, like IB students, enjoy enormous mobility and transferability. However, admission to another school will be subject to the admissions policy of that school and the availability of places and subjects on offer.

Indian options for IGCSE 10th and IAL A Level candidates

After IGCSE 10th candidate can join PUC in any Indian syllabus pre college.

After A Levels students are at par with any Indian 12th Qualification like CBSE, ICSE or any state board. They will be eligible to appear in any National level competitive exams like NEET, JEE and CLAT (LAW entrance exam)